

Printing, Mailing, Fulfillment-- a seamless process with Knepper Press

Finding a printing company that is a single source provider of printing, fulfillment and mailing can eliminate the logistic problems associated with using multiple vendors for print, mailing and fulfillment. If you're like most companies, you've got a separate vendor for each of those services. Combining them into a single company will save both time and money. It consolidates the people you have to interface with, which will save time, and usually printing companies such as Knepper Press will be able to provide a lower quote because they have all three services.

Printing companies can lower the cost and increase the effectiveness of your mail, marketing and fulfillment needs. Because they are a comprehensive provider of all of these services they have the experience and resources to solve the mailing, warehousing and distribution problems.

Printing services: printed products from flyers and coupons to catalog printing and annual reports. We have the right press configurations for efficient production of a wide range of products. Our turnaround time is very quick because we have some of the best printing machinery in the United States.

Mailing: Self-mailers are a Knepper Press specialty. We routinely print and process mailings from a few thousand to millions. Your mailing pieces are always reviewed by our experts to be sure that postal requirements are met to receive the best possible postage rate.

If you lack a mailing list, let us know the demographic criteria you want to include, the geographic area you are mailing to and we will provide a list that meets your needs.

Fulfillment: With 100,000 square feet of warehouse space we are capable of serving all of the needs of most direct mail clients. We provide our clients with the services they need from simple storage to more complex projects including kitting, pick and pack and drop shipping.

Next time you have a project like magazine printing or a direct mail drop, think about combining the printing, mailing and fulfillment services to one vendor and save yourself time, money and hassle.
